

Toronto School of Management is excited to welcome you to Canada! To reduce the risk of infection and transmission of COVID-19, it is mandatory you undertake a 14-day quarantine period immediately upon your arrival to Canada.

Please review this checklist carefully so you are aware of your responsibilities. Not following proper Government of Canada protocols may result in being denied entry into the country and government authorities may also fine students for non-compliance in certain situations.

TSoM will provide support for all quarantined individuals throughout the 14-day period, including, but not limited to: food, medical care, other necessities of life, so no individual will be required to break quarantine at any point.

If you have any questions about this quarantine plan or if you need further assistance, kindly email studentservices@TorontoSoM.ca, and we'd be happy to help!

PRIOR TO LEAVING YOUR COUNTRY:

- Confirm if your required courses will be offered online or on campus.
- Review the current travel restrictions before booking your flight to Canada.
- If you are eligible to travel, then you need to prepare proof that you're entering for an essential purpose.

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS TO REVIEW AND ANSWERS FOR YOUR QUARANTINE PLAN:

1. Have I selected and booked one of the quarantine accommodation options provided by TSoM (including food, medication, cleaning supplies)?
2. Do I have a confirmed transportation to the self-isolation location arranged by TSoM?
3. Have I confirmed separate housing facility for my co-arriving family who is over 60 years old or is considered vulnerable?
